The latest news about pet care and house sitting across Australia

Happy New Year!

A new year of house and pet sitting possibilities

Welcome to the New Year and a year of saving and experiences.

This is the first Mindahome e-news issue of 2015 and we would like to start the year off with some great hints and tips about what you can expect as a house and pet sitter and a home and pet owner.

We talk about the benefits of investigating house and pet sitting as a holiday or lifestyle choice as well as how engaging a house and pet sitter this year may be beneficial for your pets.

As always, home and pet owners can search for sitters for free via mindahome.com.au and house and pet sitters can register with Mindahome to stay in as many homes or as few homes as you like each year.

There are so many possibilities - view our house and pet sitting positions online or search for a house and pet sitter now.

Happy 2015 and we wish you a successful house and pet sitting year ahead!

Our personal attention over Christmas

Our pet parents went away for a few days over the silly season, but Lara and I didn't really know the difference.

We had a lovely house and pet sitter at our disposal the entire time and our food and water were right there when we expected them every time.

It was nice to be able to relax around home and not be moved to a different home for the time mum and dad were away.

Lara and I received many pats and cuddles from our sitter and a few little treats along the way. Maybe she'll be back soon... that'll be a treat!
