

Plan your trips and your pet care

Exploring the country on a touring holiday is a wonderful experience, but your pet can't always come along with you. So if you're planning to take a trip in the coming weeks or months, be sure to list a position (it's FREE) on Mindahome.com.au and make sure you attract the right sitter for your pet.

As the weather cools, it's a great time to explore regional towns and immerse yourself in the country hospitality. We've included some great stopover ideas if you're planning to travel around the school and Easter break.

Enjoy your travels!

Caring for pets: Indoor play with your fur-pal

Some parts of Australia are experiencing some extreme weather conditions with rain on the horizon for the next few weeks. So if rain is on its way to you, but you have an energetic pet that needs exercise, try some of these indoor activities to keep your fur-friend entertained.

- Roll and Reward: Using an empty soft drink bottle, fill it with dry treats. As your dog rolls the bottle, treats will slowly fall out. Your dog will learn a new trick and be rewarded for their efforts at the same time!
- Pooch Tug-of-War: Using a towel or rope, play tug-of-war with your pooch.
- Treasure Hunt: Keep your dog's mind active by hiding some treats around the house and encouraging them to find them.
